From Saturday April 22. to Tuesday April 25 1738.

By the Lords Juſtices General and General Governors of Ireland,

A PROCLAMATION.

Hu. Armach, Wyndham C. Hen. Boyle.

WHEREAS His Majeſty has ſignified unto us His Royal Pleaſure, That the Parliament of this Kingdom, which now ſtands prorogued to Tueſday the Twenty-fifth Day of this Inſtant April, be further prorogued to Thurſday the Twenty-firſt Day of December next; We do therefore publiſh and declare, That the ſaid Parliament be, and accordingly the ſaid Parliament is, hereby further prorogued to Thurſday the Twenty-firſt Day of December next: Whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament, are to take Notice accordingly.

Given at His Majeſty's Caſtle of Dublin, the Thirteenth Day of April, 1738.

By their Excellencies Command,

Tho. Tickell.

God Save the King.

Petersbourg, April 1. The Emperour's Miniſters have uſed their beſt Endeavours for ſome Weeks paſt, but without Succeſs, to engage the Czarina to perſuade the King of Poland to leave the 8000 Men he has in Hungary, on the ſame Footing they were firſt ſent. When General Botta (who ſet out from hence laſt Monday) had his Audience of Leave, her Majeſty was pleaſed to make him a Preſent of a Diamond Ring, valued at about 4 or 5000 Rubles.

Berlin, April 22, N. S. Orders are made out for the Troops who are to march towards Cleves. This Route goes no further than Magdebourg, becauſe 'tis ſaid theſe Troops are to encamp in that Neighbourhood, at a Place called Zieſar, where they are to receive further Orders. When theſe Troops are to begin their March, does not ſeem to be yet determined; but 'tis thought it will be ſooner or later, as this Court may ſee more or leſs Appearance of the Prince of Sultzbach's being confirmed in the Proviſional Poſſeſſion of the Provinces in Diſpute.

Stockholm, April 11, O. S. Yeſterday in the Senate the King of Sweden made Choice of M. Reintwych and Baron Flemming, to go as his Miniſters to Vienna and Paris, where they were formerly Secretaries to Ambaſſadours.

Copenhagen, April 26, N. S. His Daniſh Majeſty reviewed the Regiment of Horſe-Guards on the 22d Inſtant, but the Infantry belonging to the Garriſon of this City probably will not be review'd this Year, a great Number of the Soldiers being daily employed in carrying on the new Buildings. The Secretary at War ſet out the Beginning of the Week for Fuhnen and Jutland, to review the Troops in thoſe Quarters; which is a pretty ſure Sign that the Court has now laid aſide all Thoughts of travelling this Summer. A Frigate of about 30 Guns is fitted out for Petersbourg, in order to exerciſe the Cadets in the Sea Service.

Dreſden, April 27. The King has made Count Rutowski General of Horſe, and given him at the ſame time the Command of the 1200 Saxons that are in Poland. As the Prince Royal is perfectly recovered, it is reſolved that he ſhall marry the Princeſs by Procuration for Don Carlos. M. Domski, Commiſſioner on the Part of King Staniſlaus for ſelling the Eſtates in Poland belonging to that Prince, having been charged, in his laſt Return from Luneville, with the reciprocal Recognition between King Staniſlaus and King Auguſtus, and the Exchange of their two Letters on that Subject having been made, the King of Poland has notified the Marriage of the Princeſs Royal by a Letter to King Staniſlaus.

Whitehall, April 25.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to direct Letters Patent to paſs the Great Seal of Great Britain, containing a Grant of the Office of Richmond Herald of Arms to James Lane, Eſq; void by the Surrnder of Charles Whingates, Eſqr.

Whitehall, April 21, 1738.

Whereas it has been repreſented to His Majeſty, That on the Fourteenth Day of this Inſtant April, in the Evening, a great Number of People aſſembled themſelves in the City of Briſtol, in a riotous and tumultuous Manner; that the Magiſtrates of the ſaid City having cauſed the Proclamation for preventing Tumults to be read, they diſperſed at that Time, but aſſembled again the next Morning in the ſame riotous Manner: And whereas an anonymous Letter was, on the 18th Inſtant, taken up in the Court of the Dwelling-Houſe of Nathaniel Day, Eſq; Mayor of that City, threatning him with Miſchief, in caſe he ſhould moleſt any Perſon on Account of the ſaid Riots: His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the ſeveral Crimes above-mentioned, or either of them, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any of the ſaid Offenders that ſhall diſcover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices in the ſaid Riots, or in writing, ſending, or dropping the Threatning Letter aforeſaid, ſo that they or any of them be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Briſtol, April 15th, 1738.

Whereas a Riot was the laſt Night committed on the Wears in this City.

This

This is to give Notice, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall diſcover any of the Perſons concerned in the ſaid Riot, ſo as he or they ſhall be convicted thereof, ſhall receive the Sum of Ten Pounds; to be paid by the Chamberlain of the ſaid City, on ſuch Conviction: And if any Perſon or Perſons, concerned in the ſaid Riot, ſhall diſcover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he or they may be convicted thereof, ſhall receive the like Sum of Ten Pounds on ſuch Conviction, to be paid as aforeſaid.

Day, Mayor.

Briſtol, April 18th, 1738.

Whereas a Letter, without Date or Name, directed to the Right Worſhipful Nath. Day, Eſq; Mayor, was the laſt Night, or early this Morning, thrown into the Court of his Dwelling Houſe in Queen Square, addreſſed in the Words following, viz. "May it pleaſe your "buſie Worſhip, to be ſo kind not to trouble your "ſelf about what you call a Riot on the Wear as much "as you do; if your Worſhip doth moleſt any Perſon, "we that did break the Windows of that wicked Crea-"ture's Houſe, will certainly do you the ſame Kind-"neſs and ſomething worſe the firſt Opportunity, we "doth not queſtion will be in a little Time: We think "it Juſtice to ſerve her ſo, and your Worſhip worſe, "if you doth not hold your Peace.

"And, I pray, accuſe none wrongfully; if you "doth, it ſhall be — Fire to you."

The Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Briſtol, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons concerned in writing or throwing the ſaid Letter into the Court aforeſaid, do hereby promiſe a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, to be paid out of the Chamber of the ſaid City.

Hollidge, Chamberlain.

And, as a farther Encouragement, I do hereby promiſe a Reward of Fifty Pounds more to any Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid; to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

Nathl. Day.

Whitehall, April 22, 1738.

Whereas an Incendiary Letter, dated at Laugharne, the 7th of March laſt paſt, was ſent by the Poſt, directed to John Philipps of Kilgetty, Eſq; Carmarthen, and received by him on the 9th of the ſame Month, threatning, That in Caſe he ſtood Candidate for Common-Councilman of Carmarthen, he ſhould not enjoy it a Year in Peace, and warning him to take Care leſt his Brains be knock'd out, his Blood licked by Dogs, his Houſe ſet on Fire, and his Friends murthered: His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Author or Authors thereof, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as they or any of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement, the ſaid John Philipps does hereby promiſe a Reward of Fifty Pounds; the Mayor and Common-Council of the County Borough of Carmarthen do offer a Reward of Thirty Pounds, to be paid out of the common Stock of the Corporation; and the Rev. Mr. Anthony Rudd, of Carmarthen, doth likewiſe promiſe a Reward of Twenty Pounds; which ſaid Sums of Fifty Pounds, Thirty Pounds, and Twenty Pounds, ſhall be ſeverally paid to the Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders, by us,

John Philipps,
Jon. Newſham, Mayor.
Anthony Rudd.

General Poſt-Office, Feb. 22, 1737.

Whereas the Poſt Boy, bringing the Briſtol Mail to London, was ſet upon and robbed by a ſingle Perſon on Foot, Yeſterday about Seven o'Clock in the Evening, at the End of Sunning Lane, two Miles on this Side of Reading. The Poſtmaſter General thinks proper to make it publickly known, that whoever ſhall apprehend the Perſon who committed this Robbery, will, upon Conviction, be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, beſides the Reward by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; or if any Accomplice in the ſaid Robbery ſhall make a Diſcovery of the Perſon who committed the Fact, ſuch Accomplice will be entitled to the ſaid Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and alſo have his Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon. The Perſon who committed this Robbery, is deſcribed to be a middle-ſiz'd Man, had on a great Riding Coat, with a whitiſh Velvet or Pluſh Cape; he carried off the Horſe and Mail, which Mail contained the following Bags.

Stamp-Office, April 21, 1738.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament of the 5th and 6th of King William and Queen Mary, a Duty of 5 s. is impoſed upon every Piece of Paper or Parchment upon which any Licence or Certificate of Marriage ſhould be written or engroſs'd; and by three ſeveral ſubſequent Acts of Parliament of the 6th and 7th, and 7th and 8th of King William, and of the 10th of Queen Ann, a Penalty of 100 l. is inflicted on any Parſon, Vicar or Curate, or other Perſon in Holy Orders, who ſhall marry any Perſons without Publication of Banns of Matrimony, or without Licences firſt obtained for the ſaid Marriage, one Moiety thereof to his Majeſty, and the other Moiety to him who ſhall inform and ſue for the ſame. And whereas a Practice hath of late prevailed for Perſons in Holy Orders reſiding within the Liberties of the King's Bench and Fleet Priſons, and elſewhere, to marry Perſons without either the Publication of Banns, or any Licences obtained, and to give Certificates of ſuch Marriages without the ſaid Duty thereon, to the Diminution of that Part of his Majeſty's Revenue, as well as the Ruin of many Families: And the Commiſſioners for managing his Majeſty's Stamp Duties being determined, as far as in them lies, to ſuppreſs the ſaid Practice, have commenced ſeveral Proſecutions againſt Perſons reſiding within the Liberties of the King's Bench and Fleet Priſons, for the ſaid Offence: And that no one may pretend Ignorance herein, the Commiſſioners have thought fit to give this Notice, that they will for the future proſecute with the utmoſt Severity, all ſuch as they ſhall receive Information of, to have married without ſuch Banns or Licence, and to have granted ſuch Certificate without the ſaid Duty, contrary to the Directions of the ſaid ſeveral Acts.

Georgia Office, Weſtminſter.

The Truſtees for eſtabliſhing the Colony of Georgia in America, out of a due Regard to publick Credit, do hereby give Notice, That they have reſolved, That all Expences which the Truſtees have already ordered, or ſhall hereafter order to be made in America, for the Uſe of the ſaid Colony, ſhall be defrayed and paid for in Georgia, in Sola Bills of Exchange only, under the Seal of the ſaid Truſtees. And they do further give Notice, That no Perſon whatſoever has any Authority from them, or in their Name, or on their Account, to purchaſe or receive any Cargoes of Proviſions, Stores or Neceſſaries, or to contract any Debt, or create any Expence whatſoever in America. And that no Perſons may be ignorant thereof, the Truſtees have have ordered, that this Notice ſhall be affixed and remain on the Door of the Storehouſe at Savannah, and on the Door of the Storehouſe at Frederica, in the Province of Georgia in America, and ſhall be publiſhed in the London Gazette, and South Carolina Gazette.

Sign'd by Order of the Common Council of the ſaid Truſtees, this 29th Day of March, 1738.

Hand in Hand Fire Office.

The Directors give Notice, That a General Meeting of the Members of the ſaid Society will be held at their Office in Angel Court on Snow-hill, on Thurſday the 11th of May next, by Three in the Afternoon: Where all who have Inſured are deſired to be preſent.
